

ASTI ANNUAL STUDENT BURSARY

The purpose of the ASTI Annual Student Bursary is to assist students who have a parent who is an ASTI member or an ASTI staff member, while undertaking a course in third-level education.

ASTI will award FIVE BURSARIES to the value of €1,000 each.

The bursaries are exclusive to the children of an ASTI member or ASTI staff member. Applications are invited from children of ASTI members or ASTI staff members currently attending or commencing full-time undergraduate third-level courses. The successful applicants will be picked by lot which means that all entries have an equal chance of winning.

The Bursary draw is open in respect of any student whose:

- Parent(s) is a member of ASTI or a staff member of ASTI
- Is commencing or has already commenced a full-time undergraduate third-level course – proof of course acceptance will be required.

HOW DO I APPLY?

Entries for the Bursary will open in September 2024. An application form can be downloaded from the ASTI website.

CLOSING DATE

Entries for the Bursary will remain open until 5pm on 30th September 2024. It shall be the sole responsibility of the applicant to ensure the completed application will be received by the due time and date.

Terms and Conditions

1. Children of ASTI members or ASTI staff members are eligible to apply.
2. Applications will be accepted from eligible applicants who are commencing or have already commenced an undergraduate course in a third level institution – proof of acceptance will be required.
